

Alan L. Eisenberg

March 27, 1968 - October 8, 2018

It is with great sadness that the family of Alan Lawrence Eisenberg announces his unexpected passing on Monday, October 8, 2018, at the age of 50.

Alan will be lovingly and forever remembered by his wife of 26 years, Janet, and their children Andrew and Zach, by his mother, Carol Steckman Eisenberg, and by his sister Robyn Brilliant (Charles). Alan will also be lovingly and forever remembered by his many nieces and nephews, his extended family, and many dear friends. Alan was predeceased by his father Roy L. Eisenberg.

Alan graduated from WT Woodson High School in 1986, and from Virginia Tech in 1990, with a degree in communications. While at VT, he was one of the founding members of the VTTV, channel 33, the first student run TV station at VA Tech. He was also a member of the fraternity Theta Xi. He had a successful career as a visual communications expert, video producer and multimedia developer.

Alan was a devoted husband and father and was passionate about helping victims of bullying. Alan actively pursued that passion as a certified life coach, speaker and author, as well as by creating his company, Bullying Recovery, LLC, whose mission was to help those who suffer from the long-term effects of bullying.

Services will be held at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday October 14th at Adat Reyim, 6500 Westbury Oaks Ct., Springfield, VA 22152. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made, in Alan's memory, to either the Jewish Social Service Agency (Bullying Prevention Program) at

“ I was sorry to read about the loss of your dear loved one. The bible gives us hope of seeing them again in the promised resurrection according to scriptures such as [John 5:28-29] and [Acts 24:15] where Jesus speaks of the dead as being in a deep sleep. There is further hope found at [Isaiah 25:8] and [Revelations 21:3-5] which says in part that Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and there will be no more mourning nor outcry, by God swallowing up death forever. I hope these scriptures will be of some comfort.
My Sincere Condolences.

“ Alan's family: I'm so sorry for your loss. I went through a similar situation and I was very helped by the hope that I found in the Bible in John 5:28, which says, "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". I am sending you a link with more information on this hope. <https://www.jw.org/en/publications/magazines/awake-no3-2018-nov-dec/>
