The friendships I built in your classes still endure until this day, because you were inspirational in demonstrating how to treat one another in love. You will be deeply missed, Rest In Heavenly Peace, Mrs. Satta, we all loved you, but the Lord loves you most!

“ Claire’s family: I’m so sorry for your loss. I went through a similar situation and I was very helped by the hope that I found in the Bible in John 5: 28, which says, "Do not amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". I am sending you a link with more information on this hope. <https://www.jw.org/en/publications/magazines/awake-no3-2018-nov-dec/>

“ I had the honor and the opportunity to spend quality time with Claire over the past three months while she was fighting for her life. My time with Claire was filled with joy and tenderness. Claire’s mind was sharp until her final days and she told me so many stories of her childhood and her adult life that I will treasure. May God Bless all of you that reached out to Claire, thought of Claire, and prayed for Claire over the years. Her life was full and blessed because of you. May your memories of Claire stay strong in your heart, and please continue to pray for her.

“ Yet another special teacher from "the old school" has left us. Claire never relented with her students and cared about her students' education as much as any teacher I've ever known. She was also supportive, kind and helpful to every teacher, especially the new ones, at Lackey. Principal Jimmy Short never withheld his admiration for this born educator, so often speaking eloquently and emotionally about the lengths Ms. Satta would go to for her seniors. She endured some serious, painful health traumas in her last years at Lackey, and I'm still waiting for her first complaint. Rest in peace, my friend. Thanks for making Lackey a better place for students and teachers alike.

“ Claire was a gracious friend and a knowledgeable teacher. She often came to the rescue of a fledgling teacher(me) with sound advice and lesson suggestions. Later during our time at Lackey, we carpoled from Alexandria, and she tolerated my taste in music. On one memorable commute we drove the entire length of 210 without hitting a stoplight. I t was magical.

“ You were my favorite teacher, hands down. You did so much for me in the two years that I had you as a teacher. I learned many lessons from you, even harsh ones. You were always fair and forgiving. I always knew how much you cared about me and wanted to see me succeed. When I became a teacher and had the pleasure of becoming your colleague, you took me under your wing and bestowed upon me many gifts. I had the honor of speaking at your retirement party. I was able to share with everyone in attendance everything that you had done for me. My heart is heavy tonight hearing this news, but it makes me happy to know that my brother has another kind, familiar face with him in heaven. You will be greatly missed, your service to the world is greatly appreciated. I will Forever be your Wunderkind. Rest easy
