“ My Daddy was the strongest, most compassionate man I’ve ever known. I spent my life trying to be as Godly as he was but even when I went astray he was always there to welcome me back no matter what predicament I’d gotten into (which are too many to count). He always loved me even when he was upset with some of my life choices. When I got pregnant at 17 he helped me thru all my worries. The first night I brought my beautiful baby boy, Kyle Michael Hardin, home I remember him coming into my room and saying “This is my first grandchild and I will do anything to help you raise him” this was the first time I’d ever seen him cry. I’d never felt so loved until that moment. I remember how Man got his name it came from a wide eyed one year old who called him ManMan as they knelt on the side of the bed saying nightly prayers. If my Daddy had not helped me with Kyle in so many ways I’m not sure Kyle would be the man he is today. Our favorite thing to do was watch the Washington Nationals Baseball either on TV or at the stadium that was just our thing. I will miss him greatly but now he has the best seat in the house. I know his pain is gone his frustration of all the medical problems really pissed him off but now he is wrapped in Jesus love in Heaven. I pray to see him waiting for me at the gates of Heaven. I love you Daddy and I’ll miss you so much until I see you again.

“ Harry Hardin was my father in law. He was a wonderful man. He loved his family and always had a hearty laugh and a joke. He loved the Lord and had a deep and abiding faith which sustained him during rough times, especially over the last couple of years as his health was failing. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.
