“ Sent from Cousin Alice to Missy on 6/7:Your Dad was certainly my closest cousin on the Trexler side. As kids, we really got excited when Cousin Mikeand family visited us in Charlotte. He always had a twinkle in his eye and a trick up his sleeve. When he went to UNC, he came to visit us inCharlotte on and off. I can still remember how my father, his UncleCharles, got a kick out of his vast vocabulary which he loved to show off at that time. Your Grandmother kept us informed about developments with your mother, and when they settled in Springfield as a marriedcouple, he often dropped by your Grandparent's house when I stayed with them on frequent trips up and down the east coast in my younger years.Cousin Mike, was invariably the life of the party at every family gathering. He knew a large amount of family history too. Since middle age we have kept in touch with calls and cards and a few special family events. He has always been full of information about his kids and grandkids of whom he was intensely proud. Once of the last times I called, seems like he and your Mom had just fixed lunch for one of the grandkids. He was a great lifeline for your Grandfather too. The world won't be as interesting without your Dad. He was a wonderful and special member of our extended Trexler family.
