Otto was a true gift to his alma mater. As a fellow alum and trustee, I was blessed to have known and served with him. May you rest in peace for countless tasks well executed. “ Dear Jan, Tracy, and Debbie,

I will never be able to express how blessed I feel to have had Otto in my life, both personally and professionally, over the past decade and a half. He was always there to support and encourage me, either with his words or his "size 12" motivator. He was the epitome of a servant-leader, who lived his life with grace, humility, courage, and strength.

In Peace and Love,

“ When Otto came to Western Maryland (McDaniel) in 1959 I was his honorary “ Big Brother”. At the end of his freshman year I apparently said “Otto if you apply yourself you could really excel”, he repeated this statement at an ROTC commissioning. Pointing at me he said; ‘that’s the man who counseled me’! Yes Otto you did that and then some! He was a super person, great friend and wonderful leader and mentor to many. His leadership at WMC will be missed. God bless him and his family. The heavens just received a very special ANGEL!

“ It has been such a blessing to have Otto in my life, as boss, fellow attendee at Christ Church, and dear friend. He made a difference in my life in so many ways. There are not words to express how much I, and so many others, have benefited from his mentoring, wise counsel and caring friendship. I will miss you, dear friend!

“ Otto Guenther was a great soldier, but most importantly, a great husband, father, and friend to his wife and family. A better officer and Christian gentleman never walked this earth. His friendship and love to all will always be treasured. Thank you, Otto. Vince Collier

“ Some of my favorite memories of working in and around the Pentagon were when I got to work with General Guenther. He was a great leader, listener, thinker and problem solver - He was just a joy to brainstorm with. I have so much respect for the General and will always remember his amazing personality, humor and creativity! His family should be immensely proud of the difference he made in his life and career - his notable and frequent contributions left Team USA/DoD much better than when he found it. To his family - thank you so much for sharing him with his former colleagues who greatly valued his leadership; commitment to the cause; and friendship. Thank you Otto! Most sincerely, Paul Brubaker

“ I was blessed to become friends with Otto when he joined the Board of Trustees of McDaniel College. Otto's love for the College and natural leadership distinguished him, culminating in his election as Chair of the Board. Otto shone brightly and led brilliantly in that role, helping McDaniel make tremendous strides. He taught us to lead, to befriend, value and trust one another, and to share leadership in new ways. His commitment was unwavering to the end. His profile is courage itself. Mary Lynn Durham.

“ Otto was a remarkable, generous, and loving man, who brought humility, joy, and faith to everything he did and all that he led. I first met Otto when we both joined the Board of Trustees of McDaniel College. I came to know him as a gentle leader, one whose deep respect for everyone and tireless service to the mission of his efforts was profoundly effective and lasting. Colleges and Universities are remarkably unique institutions, often challenged by resources, governance, and a balance of independent thought and shared community; Otto was a perfect blend of thoughtful and gentle leadership as our Chairman of the Board, who not only effectively led through the pandemic, but also through the transition of presidents, ushering in and inaugurating a new leader for McDaniel and a re-newed sense of mission, which will stand for years to come. It was a privilege for me to have known Otto and to have worked with him.

“ It has been an honor and a privilege to serve on the Board of Trustees of McDaniel College with Otto. As Chairman in recent years, he led the board brilliantly enabling us to address critical issues of pedagogical value (for which the college was recognized with the John Nason award from AGB in 2020), diversity-equity-inclusion (so important to students today), the COVID-19 Pandemic, and senior leadership transition. How fortunate we have been to know him and work with him!

Rest in peace, Otto.
