Ridvan Haka

The wonderful husband and father. The good man, the adventurous son, the little brother, the funny uncle, the person with a beautiful heart. Friends and family wanted to be with him. Ridvan Haka (Voshi) died on December 14, 2018. He loved and adored his family, and always encouraged them to be the best they could be. Will always be remembered for his humor, love of the farm, and desire to drive across the country.

To my wonderful husband – Thank you for your unconditional love and for making me a stronger person. We will meet again my love!

To our dearest father – Thank you for being the best father anyone could dream of. We are who we are because of you. You have taught us a lot about how to live a decent and honest life. We will make you proud!

Candle of Memories - December 21, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ I know were born and then we must die, but in the interim of it all I enjoyed knowing Haka Ridvan. We worked for Home Properties and we all worked at Braddock Lee Apartments in Alexandria, Virginia. Haka was One of my best friends because he was a man of dignity and character. A man with a huge heart that loved people. He watched over me many times making sure I was safe in the office at all times. He had a smile on his face at all times and the residents just loved him as I did. God called a good man home. Haka was a friend who watched over me and made sure no one would try to harm me as I was out there in the dating world. He was my big brother! When I finally married he then said " I like your husband your ok now, you married a good man to watch over you" , Then my husband moved me to Utah. I thank God that I had a chance to meet his wife and children. It was one holiday I didn't have any friends or family to celebrate it with ,and Haka said "please join us at our house I would love for you to meet my family". I went and to their house and met his family and friends. His wife is a true woman of God, so beautiful and so very kind. In the middle of any given day he would randomley call his wife for me to speak to her and let her know how funny crazy he was being in the office! His children are smart, loving and very sweet! I think his son will work in the White House someday because he was just a little boy when I met him with so much intelligence! And his daughter is a sweet princess. I will miss Haka, his humor, laughter, and strength. He loved loved this country and made friends with people he met. May the Lord keep blessing this family, and give them the courage and strength to keep doing what needs to be done to keep the family together. I love you all with all my heart, I will continually keep you in my prayers.
