“ Patsy, Amy and Robert, please accept my most sincere condolences for the loss of your husband and father, my Uncle Bobby. Although the circumstances of our lives have not allowed us to know each other well, I still hurt for you in your time of grief. May your loving memories of Bobby carry you through to a sense of peace very soon.

“ What a rascal! I am so grateful our boys got to spend so much time with Mr. Mankin. From walking in the creek to watching tv in his lap, or using a calculator, or a magnifying glass, he lit curiosity in my boys. We got to know the Mankins and cherish all our time with both of them building memories and friendship.
