“ I am in tears, having just found out this very minute. Jeremy, I am so sorry. I have many stories I still tell to this day that have your mom in them. I still watch Law & Order because she got me hooked on it! LOL I pray that you are happy and healthy and hold all her memories so close to you. Next time I'm up home I will make it a point to go out to Quantico and see her.

“ I graduated with your mom at KHS. I have not seen her since graduation but she was always a wonderful person and it is just beautiful to see all that she accomplished in her life. My deepest sympathy to you.

“ Our thoughts and prayers to Jeremy. My husband and I worked with her while assigned to the Reserve staff at the Pentagon and she always lit up a room with her smile. May you be at peace Sylvia.

“ Jeremy, your Mom was the one the best BIMAs in the USAFR and definitely an awesome woman. I loved swapping stories (especially son stories) with her. She was smart and witty and beautiful. I'm so sorry she had to leave you so soon. Thank you for sharing her with us crazy Airmen at Ft Meade.
In Christ,
Doreen DesJardins, Capt (ret), USAFR

“ I am going to miss my sister. She may have only been my half sister but I grew up with her and her dad raised me so to me she is my blood. I remember when she was in high school and all the girl talks we would have. I wish I was alot closer to her these past years so I could of visited her and spent more time with her. I will never forget her and she will always be in my heart. She was a wonderful women. RIP Beautiful

“ I crack a smile everytime I think of you. I was known for making other people laugh but you knew how to make me laugh. I'm sure you are making heaven a brighter place just like you did here on earth for so many of us. Farewell my love, until we meet again, God be with you and may God be with us all.
