Comments

“ Memories of my friend Mr. Cuny came into my mind just now and I am very saddened to read here of his recent passing. He was a kind and caring gentlemen with a big, mischievous smile and a warm heart. My best to those whom he has said "goodbye for now," especially his daughter Anni who I had the privilege of seeing on church each Sunday with Mr. Cuny in years recently passed.

Candle of Memories - July 12, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ Tom was a thoughtful and faithful Christian man who served and cared for humanity. Despite being very well informed on many subjects and having a near photographic memory for details, Tom was both humble and selfeffacing. I am blessed to have known Tom as a friend, a former colleague in the federal government, and as a fellow Peace Corps Volunteer in Chile III, the TECHO project, 1962-64. May Tom's soul rest In peace with our Lotd and Saviour in heaven.

“ Tom,
Your unyielding defense of the integrity of the budget against overwhelming political expediency has inspired many of us to continue the battle and to attempt to improve the budget process to align it more perfectly with our shared commitment to fiscal transparency and more responsible fiscal choices. I cherish the memory of the hours we spent battling the opportunists--and more especially our disagreements with each other over alternative visions of the way forward. Through all our struggles, triumphs and defeats, I never for one instance doubted your sincere commitment to truth and good government. I miss you often; I'll every forget you, or the joy of knowing you during our time together.
God's continued blessings on you and your family.
I am proud to sign this note as, your friend, Marvin
