“ I was sorry to read about the loss of your dear loved one. The bible gives us hope of seeing them again in the promised resurrection to come according to scriptures found at [John 5:28-29] and [Acts 24:15]. We find further hope in [Isaiah 25:8] and [Revelations 21:3-5] which says in part that Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, because God will swallow up death forever. I hope these scriptures will be of some comfort.
With Sincere Condolences.

“ I want to thank you for being there for me last year when I was scared to death about my pregnancy and being high risk. I will never forget how you stood by me and spent the day after Luke was born with me making me laugh. I always looked forward to your visits and wish we could have had many more. It's a sad time for your loved ones but there are many in heaven who are rejoicing and I can't imagine the family reunion taking place.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of you when I was growing up and the things we'd do together with you and my other cousins. Thank you for always being there for my great grandma Frances and aunt Becky. You were always selfless in your giving and unconditional in your love. Rest well in the presence of your divine creator and rejoice in the heavenly reunion with those whom have gone before us. We love you.

“ You are the best aunt. You taught me everything I know and guided me through the good times and the bad. You were the one I looked up to and idled. I have been sitting here all day at home waiting for you to walk in with Joseph as you do every Sunday and tell me to stop cleaning and how bad my candles smelled lol. I also miss you telling me how proud of me you were for all that I have accomplished because no matter who told me it meant the most coming from you because you were there every step of the way. I drive by you house every night and miss being able to call you on the way home to talk or for You to tell me to stop by and pick up the Pot of beans you made me just like your mom. You could say I am really hurt and angry that this happened so fast but I know you are in a good place with no stress or pain. I love you and miss you very much. Love Christina May, Petey

In memory of Gay. Neary: Gay, where do I began. You got me good, I didnt see this coming, not you. Always strong, never showed weakness to anyone. I knew we had gotten closer, now I understand why. You opened up to me, and made me feel so good, I felt like you were also proud of me. Vernon thought the world of you, you talk to him so kind and respectful. Thank you for your unconditional love no matter what, we could count on you. I found myself calling you all the time, just to reassure me I was right. I wish I could have known I would have taken you anywhere just to fix you so you could still be here with us. Dont worry about Mike Sr, you have taught christina well she is here for him. Michael jr lost his Sargent (you) and you can never be replaced. Lindsey got to get her life straight, thank God, I know you prayed for that. She told me you were the woman she wanted to be. Vance well he is speechless, he crys and bows his head. He was your baby with pappies eyes. So gay, I promise I will do the best I can to get through this, I will miss our talks and laughs and alittle rock and roll. Your an angel in heaven now, relax but keep everybody straight. I love you gay just remember that!! Juanita “ Kevin. I am so saddened to hear of the loss of your mom. Gay was a very special lady. We had the best times bartending at the Moose together. We would laugh so hard sometimes we would border on the lines of hysteria. I loved your mom dearly. She was truly one of a kind. I pray for comfort for you and all your family.

“ I'm going to miss how on Christmas when you always brought us the caramel corn tin cans. You were there for me when I was looking for a condo and I don't know what I'm going to do without all your suggestions on what to do in my life. I love you and I will miss you.
