

Abraham Alfred "Al" Raizen

December 12, 1917 - December 31, 2017

Raizen, Abraham Alfred "Al" - Died peacefully at his home of 60 years in Arlington on December 31, 2017, following his wife Senta's death by seven and a half days. He was 100 years old. He is survived by his children, Helen and her wife Kathy MacDonald of Jamaica Plain, MA, Michael and his wife Barbara of Arlington, and Daniel of Cambridge, MA, nine grandchildren and his sister Jeanne Greenebaum of Natick, MA. His daughter in-law, Teresa, passed previously. Al Raizen was a veteran of World War II serving in North Africa and Italy. He worked as a financial analyst at the SEC and the World Bank, retiring in 1984. He was active in civic affairs, an avid photographer and a life-long Yankees fan, to which Senta said, "And I'm a life-long Al Raizen fan." Burial service will be private. A Celebration of his Life will be planned for a later date. Contributions in his memory may be sent to the International Rescue Committee.

“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of Mr. Raizen, and so soon after the loss of his cherished wife, your mother and grandmother. How your hearts must ache. God understands the grief of those who have lost someone in death. What is more, he will undo such losses. Jesus expressed his pain over the loss of his friend Lazarus—though he knew he would bring him back to life. So Jesus will unlock the gates of the grave, just as he ordered that the stone of Lazarus' tomb be rolled away. (John 11: 35-44). So dear ones, picture the reunions as dear friends and relatives, once separated by death, hold these loved ones again. More can be learned at jw.org in the video, "Is there Hope for the Dead?" May this promise make your pain easier to bear.
