

Adam B. Cohen

April 13, 1987 - June 6, 2016

Adam Benyamin Cohen, age 29, passed away on Monday, June 6, 2016, after a lengthy illness. A native Virginian, he was a 2005 graduate of Yorktown High School, where he was a reporter for the school newspaper and a member of the crew team. He received a Bachelor's degree from the University of Nevada at Las Vegas in Film in 2014. Adam loved snowboarding, skateboarding, adventure and travel. He had a big, generous heart, believing strongly in charitable giving, and took every opportunity to do so. He was beginning to research the creation of a charitable foundation for the most basic needs of those in poverty before he passed. His keen sense of humor was a source of joy for all his family and friends. Adam is survived by his mother, Christine Smith, his father and stepmother, Daniel and Rachel Mann Cohen, his sisters, Ariel and Alison Cohen, his grandmother, Gertrude Mann, and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins. Graveside services will be held Friday at King David Memorial Garden in Falls Church, VA. In lieu of flowers, donations in Adam's name may be made to the Children's National Medical Center in Washington, DC.
