“ She was a lovely lady and so kind to so many. She lived an adventurous life and made friends with so many. She will be missed. I last saw her at Brenda and Gary Beasley's annual Christmas party and she always had a smile on her face. She will be missed but she is in Heaven and that was God's promise.

“ Georgia Girl, I didn't mean to forget you. I know you where Addie's sidekick and most beloved fried. My heart goes out to you Georgie. I will never forget the time we shared at Mt. Comfort during the Memorial Day Flag Celebration rolling up all those hot dogs for the masses. It was fun. The two of you were always fun and happy to be around. I had a good time. “ I met Addie through Georgia. Addie was a very kind lady. She often came to our house with Georgia for cookouts, parties, etc. When my daughter had a birthday party, she would come and put money in a birthday card for her. Such a kind person who will be missed.
