

Alexander Salpeter

October 15, 1947 - November 30, 2022

Passed away on Wednesday, November 30, 2022, of Fairfax Station, VA. Cherished husband of Julia Salpeter; beloved father of David Salpeter (Jennifer Rosen, MD) Michael Salpeter (Emily) and Sharon Smith (Brian); grandfather of 7.

Alex immigrated to the United States with his parents Max and Rebecca Salpeter to escape persecution in Romania. He obtained his degree in chemical engineering at Cooper Union in New York City, where he was introduced to his future bride Julia by mutual friends. He started working for the EPA in New York before transferring to the Washington, DC office as his family grew. He was incredibly proud of his work in the Acid Rain division building a system to enable trading of emissions credits that was successful in dramatically reducing acid rain related emissions. He retired from the EPA in 2013 and spent the next few years tutoring children and enjoying time with his wife, children, and grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held at Temple B’Nai Shalom, 7612 Old Ox Rd, Fairfax Station, VA 22039, on Friday, December 2, 2022, at 10AM. Interment following at King David Memorial Gardens, Falls Church, VA.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in his honor to the American Cancer Society or Temple Bnai Shalom.
