“ Fred will remain in our hearts forever. He is a very kind person with an always smiling face. With his company, no one will be bored. He has a lot of stories and information to share. We will miss his visits to our house on Saturdays to play pool. He has gone home to be reunited with our Creator. Our prayers go to his family.

“ Fred is a loyal friend, an avid bowling player and a fierce competitor. He is a loving husband to his wife and father to his children like he always mention. He will be missed. Fred and I set out one day to bowl at the Army base at Fort Myers, away from the big group of friends that we played against. He tutored me in the finer points of the game. I will always remember Fred as a true champion. To Joji his wife, my prayer. Fred was a special man and he will be missed by everyone who knew him..he's finally coming HOME.
