“ I am so very sorry about the loss of Amy and wish many prayers to her husband, Mother and the rest of the family. When I first came to work with Amy, she was one of two people that always tried to help me with any questions I had. At that time she worked in a department next to mine but both departments had to work closely together. Not once did she ever refuse to help me or answer questions which I had. She was very knowledgable in both departments. A very smart young lady. It is still so hard for me to believe that she is no longer with us. All of you were blessed to have such a wonderful person as part of your family. Your memories of her will be everlasting for all your lives. I pray that God will help heal your broken hearts and that you will find a way with his help to get through with your loss.

“ The times I had thought and prayed she would pull through this but the good Lord had other plans for such a wonderful lady. She is no longer in pain or suffering from the cancer. Greg you were blessed to have her as your best friend and soulmate. Cherish the memories forever - I know you will. We were blessed to have known her for a long or short time. She touched everyone with her friendliness! Please remember we are here to listen, talk or just be still with the breeze. Sending our sympathy in friendship.

“Gregg, Words can never say how much we feel. You both are so special. Amy is at peace now and for that we are grateful. You are in pain from a sad loss. For that, we can only offer prayers of comfort and peace for you and all of her family. You are both so young. 2 Corinthians 4:17-18 For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

“Aim-Less, I wish we had more time with you here on earth. God must of needed an extra special angel in Heaven to have taken you so young.. Until we meet again, R.I.P.

March 27, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear grieving family, My wife and I are very sorry for your tremendous loss and would like to express our condolences to the entire family. We cannot imagine the great pain and sorrow you are experiencing during this most difficult time. When we lose someone we love so dearly we are left with a very strong desire to see that person again. It's wonderful to know that Jehovah God has promised we will see our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. John chapter 5 verses 28 and 29 gives this wonderful reassurance: "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." What a marvelous hope! Once again we wish to express our condolences to the family. And although we cannot erase the pain and sorrow you are feeling, it is our hope that this can give you a small measure of comfort.
