

Ann Rounsevell

December 28, 1924 - May 20, 2024

On May 20, 2024 Ann Rounsevell concluded her 100th trip around the sun. Great-grandmother of twelve, grandmother of twelve, mother of five: Patti, Nancy, Kay, Jim, and Glenda, who preceded her to the heavens. Wife for sixty-six years to Glenn. Rome Georgia native, Phi Beta Kappa Vanderbilt graduate. Former majorette, Girl Scout leader, avid swimmer, overseas tax consultant, annual fruit cake production manager, investment rag archivist, award-winning tap dancer. She was a world adventurer who loved Vietnamese coffee, Thai silk, and the Mediterranean Sea. Well-versed in Southern etiquette and charm, this connoisseur of Spanish red wine and dark chocolate loved a good party and always dressed to the nines. She taught every grandchild the magic of compound interest and gave every stock broker she met a run for their money. Memorial 2:00 pm Thursday, May 23, Vinson Hall Retirement Community chapel, McLean, Virginia. Glenn, who has patiently waited for her at Arlington National Cemetery alongside the Potomac, hopes to see her soon. Date TBD.

Contributions in her honor may be made to the CLL Society (<https://cllsociety.org/?nowprocket=1>) or AFS Intercultural Programs (<https://afs.org/donate/>)
