

Ann Schofield

March 17, 2021 - June 23, 2021

Ann Schofield passes peacefully on June 23, 2021 from complications from COPD.

She is preceded in death by her husband of 56 years, Joe Schofield, in 2015 and her beloved daughter Evelyn Marie last year.

She was a faithful parishioner at Saint Lawrence Catholic Church.

Ann was retired from Accounting and retail services at Fort Belvoir and Cameron Station.

She is survived by her brother Josef Werkerle, his wife, their daughters and family in Germany, her birthplace. She will be greatly missed by her sister-in-law Brenda Creech (Dan), her brother-in-law Clyde Schofield of Alabama, her sister-in-law Cornelia Wilson of Indiana, nieces, nephews and many lifelong friends.

Ann was a wonderful homemaker, cook and gardener. She loved animals, birds and nature. She shared that love and knowledge with many around her.

As a Army wife she was stationed with Joe in Heidelberg, Germany, San Francisco, California, Brooklyn, New York and Fort Belvoir, Virginia which became their home.

Memorial Services will be held Friday July 2, 2021 at Jefferson Funeral Chapel at 1:00 PM.

Interment will occur at Arlington National Cemetery at a later date.

“ Aunt Nedie, Aunt Brenda and Uncle Clyde, my heart goes out to y'all. May God grant you peace. Aunt Ann was such a lovely lady. Always enjoyed our visits on the phone and her laughter. She laughed so much and brought joy to you. She is no more in pain. My heart will miss her. I love Y'all --- Gwen
