“ I remember Anne's enthusiam for colored pencil art and we went together to an art picnic in the country in Madison, VA in September and had a wonderful time sharing the outdoors with fellow artists. She always had alot of energy and love for people and her work. Anne volunteered often and gave of herself in many ways. My deepest sympathy to her family.

“ Anne was a beautiful lady, always emaculately dressed, and always "color" coordinated. She was a ray of sunshine on the fourth fllor of Jackson Court in Greenspring. I enjoyed her talent. She was a poet and an artist, devoted to the task of making people happy by way of her poems and paintings.
