“ I only met her a few times, but what a beautiful lady! What a beautiful couple. I know she is very deeply missed. May I send my sympathy and blessings to her family and especially to her dear husband.

“ We didn't meet Ann until 2002, when we became neighbors. Ann was always an inspiration -- tall, beautiful and fit, and always planning her next project in life. She was very proud of her children and her grandchildren, and told us stories about all the "happenings" in raising children in her beloved Villamay. She enjoyed sharing memories about family trips - the club gatherings - getting dressed up - and most of all her husband, Mark, who was always "the guy who could tackle everything, and also the most handsome man around."
