

Annette G. Luria

September 12, 1930 - March 31, 2012

On Friday, March 30, 2012, Annette G. Luria, of McLean, Virginia, at the age of 81. Beloved wife of Charles Luria for 60 years, devoted mother of Robert and daughter-in-law Cynthia, Steven and daughter-in-law Susan and Mark and daughter-in-law Cindy Luria, loving grandmother of Justin, Collin, David, Benjamin, Lindsey and Ryan Luria. Born September 12, 1930 in Baltimore, Md. to parents Harry and Ruth Greenbaum. In addition to her appreciation for the arts and interest in travel, she particularly loved to spend time and laugh with friends and took the most joy in sharing in the accomplishments of her family. She distinguished herself with grace, strength and dignity, and will be remembered for her zest for life. She spent many years together with her dear friend, Alice Davis, with whom she owned and operated the Lemon Tree Gift Shop. She and her husband, Charles, devoted themselves unselfishly to several charitable, educational and community organizations, including Brandeis University and Beth El Hebrew Congregation. A private graveside service will be held at King David Memorial Gardens and a gathering of family and friends will held at a later date. Memorial contributions may be made to Beth El Hebrew Congregation, 3830 Seminary Road, Alexandria, Virginia 22304
