“ Coach Huffman,
I have fond memories of you coaching our softball teams (The Vipers and The Mariners) in the 90's at Wilton Woods. You always had a smile on your face and were full of energy. I remember you playing (it may have been a coaches game) and doing a back flip as you caught a fly ball in the outfield. As an 11 year old, I was amazed and remember our teammates yelling, “That's our coach!.”
Sending much love to your family and loved ones, and may you Rest In Peace.

“ Tony, you will be missed more than words can say. It's been 5 years since I saw you last. I will always remember your “Big Smile” when I would see you at the shop and see you on Telegraph Rd. Pete thought the world of you. You rest now, Until we meet again.
My deepest condolences to Pam and the family. Remember keep Tony's memories going, you now have a “Guardian Angel” looking over you.
