

Balraj Singh

June 5, 1974 - January 1, 2021

A Man with a heart of gold who laughed with us even if we laughed at him. If anyone wants to learn how to serve family and friends they should learn from him. He fed us then over fed us until we almost exploded. He loved gatherings and chatting for hours. That's how we will always remember him and always miss him. He leaves behind his mother, a son, wife and younger brother. Love you Balraj Singh. You will always be our Ballu!!

“ Waheguru di sohn- Most innocent and such a beautiful soul you were mama ji' and it's true. You are in our hearts and you can never be forgotten!

You and Mami ji have been through thick and thin and have struggled a million lot all your lives, still holding beautiful smiles on your faces.

You were precious Gem and I'm sure you are all blessed in heaven right now.

It was just really unfair on God's part..

I don't agree with it. Why would he do that?

Waheguru ji da Khalsa! Waheguru ji ki fateh.

Lots of love and tons of strength to Our beautiful family left behind,

“ Dear Balraj Singh, always cherished moments we spent together last year, they are priceless. I wished we could spend more time together, but God had some other plans, he needed a gem of a person, so he took you away from all of us. God bless your soul, RIP brother. May god give strength to Aunty ji, Navpreet Kaur, Love to Yashveer Singh
