

Barbara Anne Pritchett

November 28, 1946 - November 7, 2013

passed away on Thursday, November 7, 2013. She was born on November 28, 1946 in Alexandria, VA where she grew up, raised a family, and enjoyed retirement. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother to her husband, Tommy Lamar Pritchett, her son Joshua, her daughter in law Kimberly and her two grandchildren Gabrielle and Olivia. She was also a loving sister to Janet Jarrell and wonderful aunt to Jennifer Vickers and Matthew Jarrell.

Barbara had a rewarding career in the federal government in the Washington, DC area where she spent 38 years working as a Department of Defense civilian. She retired from the government in 1998 and spent a couple years as a contractor before ultimately retiring in 2000 to enjoy life.

Barbara was an avid sports fan and we know she's up in heaven cheering for the Redskins and the Virginia Cavaliers. She will be dearly missed by her family and many friends.

“ Lamar... I was so sorry to see this. Not sure you remember me but I lived in Hollin Hall and after my husband died I moved in with my Mom. My nephew (Lewis, Jr.) played ball at Bucknell for "Bill" and with you alls boys. Again, so sorry. My prayers are with you and the family. She was a very nice lady and when I ran into you all at "Outback and the Honda" place she would always talk. Such a very nice lady. Barbara was such a kind lady.

“ I will miss running into Barbara at Panera (our mutual haunt). She was always there, quite happily sitting with her hubby. So sad..

“ Barbara was a happy hard working woman. She always had a smile and a great laugh. I hear her laughter still. Barbara was also a very generous and giving person. She was very proud to be able to carry on, with the invaluable aid of her husband Tom, the real estate investments her mother had put in place. Barbara and Tom did not just have tenants but extended family. Barbara made a point to deliver holiday treats, birthday cards and presents for the children & pets. She understood that a little love brings back a lot. Barbara also loved Color, she surrounded herself with color which brought her joy. Then her joy was shared with all of us. I'm pleased to have had her as a friend. I will miss her.
