“ For Rebecca Johns: Eternal rest grant unto them O' Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Eternal Father, we offer thee the most precious blood of your divine Son, Jesus, in union with all the Masses said today throughout the world, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners in the universal church, for sinners everywhere, for those in my own home and in my family. We pray for Becky Johns and urge others to do the same for her, and for her family.

“ Dear Sandy, Andy and Cindy, When I had the pleasure of visiting your home for an event, I was so impressed with the amount of effort that went into the enjoyment and comfort of the guests, especially the children. You are an amazing family and Becky was blessed to have wonderful parents whose lives revolved around her happiness and well being. My thoughts and prayers are with you now and always.

September 07, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ We are so saddened by such a loss. Our thoughts are with you at this time.

September 07, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Sandy, Andy, Cindy - We will so miss "our" beautiful, spirited, lovely Becky. She always brought a ray of sunshine wherever she went. We will never forget her contagious smile, her laugh, her run-and-jump-in-your-arms hugs. My heart aches for your loss. I hope you can find comfort in knowing that so many people loved Becky and love you all. We are here to support you in whatever way you need. Many, many special prayers and thoughts for you all, Sandy

September 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ What a beautiful service it turned out to be and what sunshine your angel bestowed upon us that day. Becky was a remarkable little girl and the presentation of all the pictures were outstanding of your family. You guys are such wonderful parents. We will miss her greatly and are so glad that we got to know what a beautiful little girl she was.

“ Words seem inadequate to express the sadness we feel about Becky. Our hearts go out to you in this time of sorrow. May all your memories, her huge smile and strength guide you all through this very difficult time.

September 03, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Andy, Sandy, and Cindy, I am so deeply saddened and sorry for your loss. Our thoughts are with you, your extended family, and friends as you endure this difficult time. We will be praying for God to give you peace. With love, Jessica, Khrysgiana, and Jeremiah Pineda

September 03, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Sandy, Andy and Cindy - It may not be of much comfort to know how many of us are crying with you, but I hope it helps you to know how fondly we will remember Becky. Jennie described her as the "most cheerful" girl she knew, and we're certain that you filled her short life with as much love and happiness as anyone could provide. We are thinking of you with the greatest sympathy and hoping that the many wonderful memories you created will help sustain you through this darkest of times. Linda & Jennie Mills

September 03, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Though I only met Becky once while visiting our home, her tragic loss has shook my wife and I and we can't imagine what this must be like for Sandy, Andy and for Cindy. I will keep all of them in my prayers and mass intentions. Now that Becky is with God, I'm sure she'll do everything she can to watch over her family.

September 03, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Sandy, Andy, and Cindy- We cannot begin to tell you how heartbroken we are and how sorry we are for your tremendous loss. Thinking of you all and praying for you. -The Morse Family (Sean, Jenna, Taylor, and Alexander)

“ The first time I met Becky, she was all dressed up like a princess. In the way that only Becky could describe things, she told me how she wanted to be a fairy princess when she grew up. Everytime I see a rainbow, I'll know Becky is waving her magic wand at us. I'll miss her hugs. They were the best at Clermont! With much love, Nancy, Kenneth, and Ana Cox

“ I heard some kids sing this song this morning: Purea Nei Purea nei e te hau Horoia e te ua Whiti whitia e te rÄ Mahea ake ngÄ pÅraruraru MÄkere ana ngÄ here E rere wairua e rere Ki ngÄ ao o te rangi Whiti whitia e te rÄ Mahea ake ngÄ pÅraruraru MÄkere ana ngÄ here Scattered by the wind washed by the rain and transformed by the sun, all doubts are swept away and all restrains are cast down. Fly O free spirit, fly to the clouds in the heavens, transformed by the sun, with all doubts swept away and all restrains cast down. Yes, all restrains are cast down. I am so sorry for your loss - I have fond memories of Becky sitting in the backseat after visiting the Antietam Battlefield last year and reciting the poem Fuzzy Wuzzy, I can't comprehend how hard this must be for all of you, please know that you are in my thoughts. Arohanui - Jay

“ I'm correcting my previous post: It was Becky who I remember coming to Clermont in roller skates with lipstick. She came to visit Cindy at school.

September 02, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ I am deeply saddened by your loss. I remember the year that Cindy was in Cathleen's class in first grade and I got to know Sandy, Cindy and Becky. Becky was a free spirit and I remember one day in particular when Cindy came to Clermont in roller skates with lipstick all over her face. What a joy it was to see her live so freely. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

September 02, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Words cannot express how deeply saddened and heartbroken I am for your loss. You need not walk alone. You have a strong, loving family and many caring friends. My thoughts and prayers are with you always.

September 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ We are very saddened by your tragic news. Holly misses her soccer buddy, and all the kids remember her fondly from your great summer parties and devoted soccer boosting. One of the many challenges of military life is that we are separated from our friends when we would rather be there for your support. Please know that you are all in our thoughts and prayers.

September 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ A backyard barbecue last summer, Becky gently caught a firefly and showed it to we wondering visitors. It flashed off and on for us and then she set it free again, zipping through the dusk. In our hearts, Becky's merry eyes and innocent smile shine on, her spark undimmed in memory. Andy, Sandy, Cindy, please know that the thoughts of Kerri, Mary and I are with you now.

September 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. She was way to young to leave her family, friends, and loved ones. I wish you all the best with the years to come. She will always be watching over you all. Again, I'm very, very sorry. -Robin (:

“ Only GOD knows why such tragedies are allowed to happen. I hope that through this trying time, the prayers of many and love from a select few can carry you through this storm that we call life.

September 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ A co-worker shared information about this tragedy, and I just wanted to pass along my sincere sympathy at your loss. I pray that you will find comfort in the arms of God. Psalm 34:18 -- The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit

September 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ My heart is breaking for the three of you. Know that we hold you close in our thoughts. May you find healing and strength in God to get you through the days ahead. One of my most cherished memories is seeing Andy's face light up when he spoke of his girls. It is clear that your daughters are both cherished and loved deeply and dearly.

September 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Our family wishes you peace as you remember your beautiful daughter Becky. We are blessed to have known her.

September 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ I pray that God will be with the Johns family at this time and give each one His strength to help you during this sad time. May His love impart peace and understanding that brings comfort to you and your family at this time of sorrow.

September 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Matthew 18:1-5 (KJV) 1 At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? 2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, 3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. 4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

September 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Sandy, Andy and Cindy, No words can express the sadness that we feel for you. Becky was an amazing little girl...always smiling to go along with her big personality. I feel so honored to have known her. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time. The Durham Family

“ My thoughts and prayers for Sandy, Andy and Cindy. Becky was a special young lady always wearing a smile when she visited grandma Pat. She'll be missed

September 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ My deepest condolences to you during this very difficult time. Becky's infectious smile will be deeply missed by us all.

September 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Sandy, I know we have not kept in touch much over the years since high school, however, the Sundancers have always been considered family to me. We have just returned from living overseas in Australia and are so saddened by the news of this tragedy. We just want you to know we are praying for you and your family as you deal with this. We are here to support you any way we can. Although we did not have the privilege to meet Becky, we can tell from her photos and things you posted on FB that she was an amazing, talented, happy and beautiful child. We know you loved her dearly. We cannot express in words our sadness. Please know that we care about you and your family and that we are praying for you every day.
