

Ben Schulkin

July 28, 1922 - July 2, 2015

Passed away on July 2, 2015, in Falls Church, VA. Beloved husband for 64 years of the late Florence Pachter Schulkin. Survived by Vicki Schulkin (Lee Jones) of Arlington, VA, Maury Schulkin (Ann) of Santa Rosa, CA, and Alan Schulkin (Susan) of Seattle, WA, eight grandchildren, and one brand-new great-grandchild. Born in NY, and a long-time resident of Woodland Hills, CA, he moved to Virginia ten years ago to better care for Florence. He was an aerospace engineer, could fix anything, was a great storyteller, and was devoted to a large circle of family and friends who cherished him in return. Interment was held at King David Memorial Gardens.

“ We will miss Uncle Ben and his beloved Flops too- He was a kind man with a big smile, intelligent, funny and always wanting to know more about our lives- Loved watching his home movies and seeing the photos in the many albums he and Aunt Florence kept, and hearing stories from years ago and more about their kids and grandchildren- May your memory always be for a blessing- Love Sandy and Larry, Avram, Uri and Hollen

“ As a kid, I saw my Uncle Ben only occasionally. These last few years, though, I spent many wonderful hours at his side, once a week at least and sometimes more often than that. As many times as I heard his stories of General Hama's wife, of the four nuns in the back of the airplane, of the famous "ice cream summer," I always relished hearing them again. Ben Schulkin was a delightful man with a grin that lit up the room, and I will sorely miss our visits. Tell Flops I said hello, Mr. Ben, and give her a hug and a kiss from me!
