

Betty Jane Arnold

May 27, 1945 - November 29, 2022

Betty Jane Arnold was born on May 27, 1945 to Almond Edwin Arnold and Adelaide Marie Arnold. Betty lived in Staten Island NY with her siblings Edwin and Lois. Although Betty had nerve damage at birth which left her developmentally handicapped she was able to finish her public school education at Public School #45 in New York and graduated from Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School in New Jersey.

After her parents passed away Betty went to live with her sister and brother-in-law in Chicago. She received training for the developmentally handicapped to include librarian assistant, dishwasher and assembly line worker. Betty was able to live on her own.

When the landlord sold the apartment building Betty moved to Virginia where her sister and brother-in-law were now residing. She lived with them for ten years and then moved into assisted living. Betty suffered a stroke in September 2020 which left her paralyzed on the right side. Thanksgiving weekend Betty suffered another stroke paralyzing her left side that would be the final health issue to take her life on Tuesday, November 29, 2022.

Betty is predeceased by her parents and survived by her brother, Edwin and his wife Miriam of Central, South Carolina, sister, Lois and her husband John of Springfield, Virginia, 3 nephews, 1 niece, grand nephews and nieces and numerous friends.
