“ There will be only ONE AUNT BETTY. Her smile and laughter will remain in my heart forever. My youth with my Virginia stays at Aunt Betty and Uncle Ted's home, even today, bring warm joy to my heart and fond memories. They basically took me in for the summers and treated me more like a son than a nephew. We kept in touch over the years by phone and later by email, Aunt Betty on her IPAD (unreal for a 90 year old) and I on my computer. Even though they were written words, I could imagine her laughter coming through. Her love and devotion for Uncle Ted was unwavering, even up to the end and came through in her emails. A TRULY SPECIAL and CARING PERSON .

Rest in peace, Aunt Betty. You'll NEVER be forgotten. Somehow I have a feeling when my time comes, and with GOD's graces, I'm able to get to heaven, I'll hear that familiar, loving voice saying "Hay Ang, over here" and once again, I can visit my loving Aunt Betty.

*Love and Miss you,
Your nephew
Angelo*
