“ To Brian and Christopher and families, Carol and I fondly remember the great times we had with both your Dad and Mom here in FL. Trips to the keys, playing cards to all hours of the night and of course trips to Trader Joes for supplies. We all really anticipated their arrival and looked forward to spending as much time as possible together, listening to both of them brag about the two of you. Our most sincerest condolences.

“ I can't think about Jean without remembering her carrying her wonderful homemade pies in that pie basket of hers. I only really saw her at the various family celebrations over the years, weddings and funerals. Other thing I remember was that she never asked if I needed help at the big Summer party, she just donned an apron and got up to her elbows in dishes. She will be missed!
