“ I would like to express my condolences to your family, it can be hard for friends and family to find the right words to express at difficult times like these. The Bible is a great source to look into and has helped me personally when My dad passed away. Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever in a peaceful beautiful paradise earth. (Isaiah 35:5,6 John 5:29) A comforting thought is at Revelation 21:3,4, where it states "...And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry be anymore the former things have past away". This scripture gives us hope for the future! You can also find comfort in Acts 24:15 - Death does not end it all. May Jehovah God bring you comfort and peace during this difficult time. (Ps.46:1, Ps.83:18)

“ Oh my.....I just read this in the DuBois, PA Courier Express. I am just so saddened. Brenda and I were very good friends in highschool and I saw her a few times after that, when her kids were little. I hadn't heard anything about her being sick. I want to reach out with my condolences to Ernie, Kyle, and Michaela - also her mom, Rosalie, and brother Neil. I will keep you all in my prayers. I am also so very glad to be able to say that I know I will see her again one day!

“ It's been more than 20 years since our paths have crossed. As the years have rolled on, there have been memories that come to mind. My most vivid was a game night the singles had at the Silver Ridge address. We all had a great time. I think that might have been a "first date" for ya'll. The years have gone by and we all went our separate ways and had our share of trials. But our faith in Christ has helped us get by those challenges. Brenda is now with our Savior and has no more pain that this earthly body brings with it. Titus 2:11-13 are verses we all can hold on to as God's promise to us.

“ As Paster Dave would say, our loss and Heaven's gain. What a wonderful a sweet friend Brenda has been to me since the 80's. Her sweet spirit and faith during her sickness shows God's love and peace. She will truely be missed here and I look forward to seeing her in again. I am praying for her family.

“ There are no words for how I have been touched by Brenda. I only knew her for a year but she always was filled with the peace and joy of God that would shine right out of her eyes. Her smile was beautiful and filled with love. When I meant to encourage her I would always go away encouraged. She was an amazing woman of God and I feel privileged to have known her. I will miss her but know that she is with her Savior and in no more pain. My prayers are with you Ernie, Kyle and Michaela during this difficult time.

“ My sincerest sympathies to the Shreck & Bloom families on the loss of Brenda. Although I've never met Brenda, I have been praying for her for the last several months after learning of her struggles from her brother Neil. I'm sure she has touched many lives & will be greatly missed by family and friends. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time.

“ My heart and prayers go out to all the friends and family of Brenda. I never met her, but it was clear from Ernie's posts what an incredible light to this world she has been. Her love for her family, and for God, never waivered and I admire her incredible strength as she prepared to make her transition. My deepest sympathies to Ernie, Kyle and Michaela during this difficult time.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Brenda. I have only meet her once. I'm glad I did get to meet her even if it was one time. She was a beautiful lady. She was one lady who stayed strong for her family. Her family truly did love her. They watched after her, they were strong for her, they were in so much pain to see their wife and mother this way. But they spent as much time with her as possible. But just think she is now looking over her family and friends. She's not suffering anymore. But once again im sorry to hear about Brenda. She was a great woman. She will be greatly missed by many. Fly high Brenda
