“ What can 'I' say about Brian? I would end up with a book if I had to put all my thoughts about Brian into words. Brian was everything; A wonderful neighbor. A savior from all things bug related :). An all around fix it man of Leather Bark court. A mentor. A listener. A teacher. A secret member of the Geek Squad (he was always there to fix my laptop whenever it wanted to act up). A WONDERFUL father and husband. A DEAR and TREASURED friend of mine. Brian was so many wonderful things and from these many wonderful things that Brian was, I have built up a heart full of treasured memories that will last a life time...Brian gave me something that I will forever be grateful for; he gave me courage and strength, and I can't forget this one too, he gave me the love of hockey and the Washington capitals :). In Brian's almost 3 year struggle with cancer, he showed me how to have courage and to NEVER GIVE UP! And how one man can have the strength of a 1000 men in his heart...I used to tell him 'Don't you EVER put down those boxing gloves because you are going to beat this thing'. I prayed everyday that this would come true BUT God had another plan for Brian, one much greater than ours...Brian was loved and will always be loved by many and he will be truly missed by all of us who's hearts he's touched the most. Good bye, my dear friend, Brian....I know your up there flying with your eagles :)

“ Brian was a wonderful person and a proud dad. He adored his family. I can recall all the times he spoke of you with pride and love. I feel fortunate to have known him as a friend and coworker. We had many fun lunches and walks to Starbucks together. My prayers are with you at this time.

“ Brenda, Earl and Family, Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. Brian was so young. The loss of a child is unimaginable. We have to think that God needed another "special angel" in Heaven. You can have comfort in knowing that Brian is not suffering anymore, and will be forever in your hearts. He is now watching over the entire Culbertson Family. Please do not hesitate to call, if theres anything that we can do. God Bless.

“ I have many fond memories of Brian. We've shared many hours on I-95 commuting to & from work when I lived in Fredericksburg which led to many great conversations. I felt like I knew the whole Culbertson family though we'd never met. Brian loved his family and it came through in his stories. Whether it was his brothers' accomplishments in law enforcement or EMT; Dad's prowess in wheeling and dealing cars; Mom's Christmas display; son's interest in his beloved sport of hockey; or wife's home improvement projects; Brian was beaming with pride. Brian was more than a co-worker, he was a friend, counselor, and coach when I needed a pep talk. He always saw the good in people and he was always willing to lend a helping hand. I teased Dianna that he was my rent-a-husband when things broke in my house and he would come to my rescue. We will all cherish our memories of Brian as he had a special place in our hearts. May God Bless the Culbertson family in this time of sorrow.

“ My heart and prayers go out to the family of Brian. To his sons, I want you to know that you are your father's legacy. Brian was a great person. Smart, kind, gentle and treated everyone with respect. He was a great co-worker and friend. I enjoyed talking football with him. (even though he was a Steelers Fan) and I am Cowboys 4 Ever. Dianna, please cherish the memories. God Bless You All.

“ I just wanted to convey my sincere condolences to the family and friends of Brian. It was with great pleasure that I shared the workplace with Brian and our many joking moments. He is at peace and that is all any of us could ask for. God bless his family during these unhappy times but for Brian his homecoming is complete.

“ I value Brians friendship over the years. I will miss him. He rests eternally with whom he accepted as his Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ. I pray for Gods comfort and his leading for Dianna and sons that they may reflect Christ in their lives and Brians giving heart and know that Brian has entered his rest in heaven. Thank you Dianna for sharing your husbands and your most precious time with me.

“ Brian provided a strong foundation for me as we worked together to develop software. He always knew what needed to be done and helped me figure out the best way to do it. He was always a good listener and had good advice for me in my life. I will miss his pleasant manner and cheerful personality. Best wishes to Brian's family.
