“ Although Bruce and his family are parishioners at the Catholic Community of Fort Belvoir, I considered him a dear friend. As so many have said, Bruce had a wonderful spirit, always seeing the bright side and always with a great sense of humor. He will be missed by all who had the good fortune to have known him, but his memory stays alive in our hearts. May he now rest in eternal peace where there is no more sorrow or pain, but only peace and joy with the saints in glory.

“ It is hard to summon the words to convey my heartfelt sadness! Bruce has been my best friend and like family since I met him at 21 in Cedar Rapids Iowa where he was being posted for a DoD job! He was instrumental in shaping me into the successful person that I am today! For that I will be forever in his debt! Although I'm heartbroken now, the plethora of happy/funny/crazy memories I have will bring a smile to my face whenever a thought of Bruce surfaces, which will be often! Megan, Corey, Kieran, Mary, my most sincere condolences! I'm here if you need ANYTHING! Bruce, love ya!

“ Our memories of Bruce are of a fun loving, generous and compassionate man. We now see that he was also courageous and loving. His battle with cancer only enhanced those characteristics. We both send our deepest condolences to Mary and family. We grieve the loss of a special human being but God celebrates the gain of a special spirit and will hold him in his arms eternally.

“ Karen and family, my sincerest condolences to each and everyone of you ... cancer is such a tough road to travel. Hoping the peace of no longer fighting that battle brings some comfort ... may the memories of happier times together overshadow the sadness. Love is Eternal ~ may that blessing shine through the darkness of loss and fill your hearts (((HUGS)))

“ Mary and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I'm have been friends with Allan and Kathy for many years and have met Bruce at a number of family events. Bruce and I got along quite well and I enjoyed his sense of humor... He shined in life and I'm sure he is shining now in his dwelling with Our Lord, Jesus. God bless all of you.

“ *Every memory that I have of my beloved brother-in-law brings a smile to my face. He was always upbeat and such a jokester....we had a lot of laughs when we all got together. But even in death, I smile, because I know that he is at peace with our heavenly Father. The sadness that creeps in is selfish, in that I won't see him again in this lifetime, there will be no more happy memories to be made... but the memories that I do have will carry me until we meet again. Mary, thank you for being there for him. God knew what he was doing when He brought you into our lives. You have sacrificed so much these last few years to make sure he got the best care, and to make his final days as comfortable as possible. God bless you. With love,
Kathy xo*
