“ To the family of Bryant Jordan,

The love you've shared with Bryant will never be lost. As humans, we all come to learn from and teach others. Bryant will always survive in your heart and in your memories, and in all the wonderful ways he has touched your life. May each thought always warm your heart. We will continue to pray for your peace and comfort.

With love,

“ I am very sorry to hear of your loss and extend sincere condolences to the Jordan family. May you find comfort in knowing that God cares deeply for us when we are grieved by the loss of a loved one and he has promised to be close to us when sorrow breaks our hearts (Psalms34:18). We can be confident that he will continue to sustain us during times of sadness as we look forward to an end of death, sorrow and pain (Revelation 21:3-4)
