

C. Douglas Mitchell

July 26, 1925 - February 27, 2015

C. Douglas "Doug" Mitchell, 89, of Springfield, VA passed away on February 27, 2015 from complications of a stroke. He leaves his beloved wife of 63 years, Betty Jo; his son, Ken and wife Betty Sue; his daughter Patti Lynn and fiancé Brian McMahon, and many family and friends. Preceded in death by his parents, John Ashby Mitchell, Sr. and Hilda Norris Mitchell and brother John A. Mitchell, Jr. Doug was born in Washington, DC and raised in the Del Ray section of Alexandria, VA. He graduated from George Washington High School in 1942. A proud veteran of World War II, Doug joined the U.S. Navy in 1943 and served in the Naval Armed Guard as a radioman in both the Atlantic and Pacific. After an honorable discharge, he worked for C&P Telephone Company for 42 years. Doug was an avid bass fisherman and a member of the Easy Goin' Bass Club. He enjoyed sports of all kinds. He was also a member of the American Legion Post 0176 Springfield, VA. Most of all, he was a loving husband and father devoted to his family.

“ Best Bass fisherman on the East Coast! Good neighbor and friend as well. Doug taught me how to Bass fish back when I was a kid. I have been hooked ever since.

Last time I saw Mr. Mitchel was the Summer of 2014. Stopped by the old neighborhood to say hello and introduce my son. We had talked about going out to dinner but time flies when you have kids and here we are.

Late, but my condolences to Mrs. Mitchell, Ken, and Patti.

Will miss you my friend.

“ I was sorry to read about the passing of C. Douglas. So I wanted to take this time to express my condolence to you for your loss. I wanted to share a thought with you that comforted me when I lost a family member in death. The man Job in (Job 14:14) asks\ " If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?\". Happily Jesus answers in (John 5:28,29)-Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of lifeâ€ Imagine a resurrection back to life and right here on earth.--(Ps.37:29)-â€œThe righteous themselves will possess the earth. And they will reside forever upon itâ€. Jesus in (John 5:28) was relaying a promise from his heavenly Father-(Jehovah-(Ps.83:18)) who at (Titus 1:2) says is a \ " God who can not lie\" Well I hope that you will be able to draw some comfort from these scriptural thoughts as I did.
