

Carl Clyde Henson, Jr.

June 2, 1923 - December 31, 2010

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Carl Clyde Henson, Jr.

October 27, 2022 at 09:45 PM

“ 1 file added to the album Obituary Wall

Jefferson Funeral Chapel - January 28, 2019 at 09:42 AM

“ Well Dad, it's been 2 mo's~I know you're happy & in glorious surroundings w/ God. I miss your voice, always sounding happy, even when you hurt. I miss your hugs & genuine care, remembering what's going on in our lives & getting updates. I miss our conversations about advertising sales! You understood since you'd been there too. I'm grateful for your guidance professionally, my 1st agency/radio/tv/print/in-store/outdoor/internet/etc! I'm eternally grateful for steering me in the right direction from graphic artist, typographer, Alexandria Lithograph (your co.), teaching me to shoot negatives, prints on that HUGE floor camera, hand develop, opaque, strip negs, burn plates, develop plates....ALL I learned from you. I miss you much more than I can explain or imagined. I'm comforted you're in Paradise but miss you! It's hard knowing I can't call, hop on a plane or drive my car to see you. I'll be so happy to see you in Heaven! Love Always & Forever, Your Daughter Sandy

February 28, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Dad, There are so many wonderful memories of "little" things that are forever etched in my memory. Sandy and I couldn't wait for you to come home after a hard day at work and bring us a little bag full of candy, (peanut butter logs and wax soda bottles). When you were talking on the phone Sandy and I would ask if we could get McDonalds and when you said yes to the person on the phone we would laugh and say he said YES! We can go to McDonalds!! (smashed hamburgers)!! I have such great memories of attending the Washington, Senators baseball games. You helped to cultivate a great love of sports that I still have today. I'll never forget the day Chris was born. You were so proud that when you, Sandy, and I left the hospital you jumped up and clicked your heels together! Wow! I never knew you were so athletic! I am going to miss you so much! It will be a wonderful reunion in heaven! I love you.

January 27, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Granddaddy I still find myself singing your name like we all use to do. I can still see you dancing while we "grandaddied" a tune that sounded like it should have been accompanied by a banjo. I love how all the grankids had the same nickname from you "perculator" - I miss hearing you call me that. I'll never forget the penny tricks and I still believe you have magic "blowing powers" that sent that penny flying all over the room. I look back at all our trips in the motor home. It never occurred to me then, the endless hours you spent driving that thing all over the mountains. But now that I'm old enough to understand what a sacrifice you made for your family to be able to travel and see many different places, I appreciate it more. Sacrifice was what you did on a day to day basis for the well being of your family. I pray that the love for my family is as beautiful and undieing as yours was for all of us. I am proud to call you granddaddy! I SO look forward to the day that I see you again.

January 27, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Granddaddy, he was a really good granddaddy. And ohh the penny trick. How i loved the penny trick. He would always give me a dollar or a candy or a 5$ bill. And he always was curious of what i have been bowling. He would talk about duck pin bowling, and how he would roll it down the lane. Even when he was in that old rehab center he would ask with a weak voice, how ya' been bowlin? or sometimes when we walk in to the room his eyes would just perk up and be happy, he would say to me, "hey babe!". We will miss him greatly.. -George.

January 25, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ There are so many memories I was fortunate to make with my Granddaddy. I will always remember the feelings of anxiousness I would get when I knew we would be planning trips up to Panama City. I loved all the silly names he would call us grand kids and the penny tricks that never seemed to get old. It warms my heart remembering those little things. I love and miss you Granddaddy and I wait patiently when we will see each other again. Even though we all miss you so much, I remember how you would try to explain the pain that you were always dealing with in the last year and knowing how excruciating it was for you, I'm at peace knowing that you no longer have to try and manage the pain. I love you forever granddaddy. Love, Ling Ling

January 25, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Granddaddy, Granddaddy, Granddaddy, Grand! Oh how you loved it when your grandkids sung your name in song! You are so very special to me and i will never forget the sound of your voice or what it felt like to be loved by you. I have a lifetime of memories with you and i am so glad that my mom followed you and Grandmommy down to Florida when you guys moved to Panama City. Because of that i was able to grow up practically living in your's and Grandmommy's house. Every birthday and holiday was spent at 4018 Valencia Court. And because of you i developed the same love you had for baseball. I will always remember laying on my belly watching the braves play and you behind me in your recliner yelling at the players and coaches. And me trying to defend everybody. It makes me laugh when i think back. I SO CAN'T WAIT to see you again in heaven and for you to give me one of your famous hugs and a smooch on my cheek. Love Forever & Always, your perculator Tiana (T)

January 24, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I will miss you so much, the three uears I have known you seems like a lifetime. You made me smile every time I saw you.you were my second father and you mean the world to me. I will cherish our memoried together forever. Love always Jade

January 24, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I followed your struggles over the course of the past year via Sandy--a most difficult time for you and all involved. That's the bad news. The good news is you are now free from the struggles, pain and suffering, and are now in the company of the BIG GUY. And this is a very good thing---excellent in fact! Your Loved Ones will grieve at the fleshly loss of you for awhile---some longer than others, this is only natural. Soon however, the pain, hurt and grieving will subside and they will dwell on the warm cherish memories of their times with you and smiles will replace the frowns, and laughter will dry up the tears of missing you. This I Pray for all!

January 18, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ You are one of a kind, dad. The impact on everyone who was fortunate enough to meet you was physical delight as seen through a smile, chuckle or knee slapping laughter. By your example our family gained wisdom and a sense of humor as well as an appreciation for the benefits of a good work ethic. Most importantly, you gave us unceasingly what so many other families are starved of: love and attention. Its a gift I will cherish forever and hope to pass along in your honor. I pray that you have always known and always will that I love you, miss you terribly and thank you for being such a wonderful father. Till we meet again... Your son, Chris

January 17, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ My Dear Dad, I love you so much and will miss you terribly. There has and will be always a special place in my heart for you. I thank God He gave you to me as my father for 54 years. Until I see you in heaven, LOVE FOREVER & ALWAYS, Sandy

January 12, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Mr. Henson: You are certainly going to be missed!! I did not have the pleasure of truly knowing you the way I would have liked to, but what I did know about you was that you were a wonderful man with a superb sense of humor. I do remember that whenever I saw you, you would always make me laugh. You were quite the family man who just never quit. As far as you were concerned, life went on and on. You were sure to live every minute and every day to its fullest!! You have left quite a legacy in your children as well as in your grandchildren who loved you so dearly. God will love and protect the rest of your family and prayers will be upon them all.....

January 05, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Uncle Carl, Some of my favorite memories are the times our families spent together. There is comfort knowing that we'll see you again some day. I love you.

January 05, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I will miss you SO much granddaddy!! As will your two great-grandboys & grandson in-law! I will always remember all the birthdays & holidays spent at your's & grandmommy's house! We practically lived there, when we were kids! Only coming inside after school to watch The Brady Bunch! I will cherish those memories forever! We love you and know that you're in a better place now! Until the day we see you again! Love you!!

January 04, 2011 at 12:00 AM