“ Mike and family. My sincere condolences to all of you. I am so sad to have lost a dear friend that like so many, have known since childhood. I lost touch with both of you for many years and now cherish the fun we all had at the High School reunions--the last one that I still talk about because we were together for three days and ended it with special friends celebrating being together that Sunday with people, one that is also gone too -- Joe McKay. Carol was a very sweet person who made me laugh too as she did others. Beautiful inside and out. RIP dear Carol and watch over Mike and all your family who like your friends, will miss you very much. With love,
Linda Sheppard McCabe

“ My sincere condolences to Mike and all of Carol's family in your time of loss. It would be difficult to remember Carol and not think of her incredible sense of humor and her love of laughter and life. She was one of those special people who could enter a room and it would brighten ... she could engage you in conversation and make your world seem better in a moment.
I pray God will heal your hearts in His time and leave you all with the fond memories of a wife, a mother, sister and friend who brought so much joy to our world.

“ I am sorry about the loss of your beloved wife and mother. It can be distressing since you will miss her very much because of the special place she has in the family. Be encouraged though by the promises in God's word the Bible concerning the hope of seeing her when she is awakened from death's sleep to live in a world without tears. (John 5:28, 29; Revelation 21:4)

“ Carol, I've been missing you for a while now. I was so sad when you got sick and had to leave the office. I'm glad that you no longer have to deal with pain and sickness. I bet you can watch little league games all over the world now whenever you want. :) Have fun up in the clouds. I hope the balloons we just sent you for your birthday get to you.
To your family, my sincere condolences.

“ When you lose someone you love you gain an angel!
Mike, Carol and I offer our prayers to you and your family.
I will say a Rosary for your beautiful Carol this evening.
Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, Love leaves a memory no one can steal. Carol left footprints on our hearts when we were young that will never wash away.--Ron and Carol
