ANGEL DANCE

ODE TO CAROL

Have you ever seen an Angel Dance? Gliding softly across the floor
An angel here on earth you say one we could all adore.

Dancing, spinning, angel pirouetting through the sky
Soaring, floating astonishingly, over the clouds you fly

What brought you here to earth to make us marvel so
As dancing through your daily world you amaze us as you go.

You danced into my life a whirlwind of beauty and grace
How could I be so lucky to gaze longingly upon your face.

You took my hand and then my heart and taught me how dance
We danced through joys and sorrows, we danced and danced and danced.

Could I have this dance for the rest of my life seemed an appropriate request

You smiled and said of course my dear, you only had to ask.

We danced across the years, decades now it's true
Oh how we danced, me and my angelic you.

As others gaze upon your dance they wonder at your grace
How could such charm and elegance all be in just one place.

If it was only your dancing we might not gaze in awe
But it's how you lived your life that impressed us most of all.

Gentleness, kindness, love in everything you do
Your example makes us better as we ask what would Carol do?

Your dancing days are ending here but it makes no never mind
As all who know you, still see you dancing in their minds.

How cruel to take you from us, we are just learning life's dance
How sad for us on earth to know we've seen our last Angel Dance.

Now dance with the angels darling your dance on earth is through.
Dance on with the angels my love til I can dance once again with you.

(Ken Hoggard, July 24, 2018)

“ To the family,

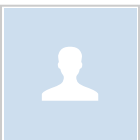

My heart extends to you at the loss of your loved one. Losing someone that means so much to you is very hard, but please know that God offers a hope for all. At Revelation 21:4 and John 5:28,29 he promises to soon do away with all sickness and death and reunite you together again soon. Until that time may you cherish and hold dear the many memories you shared together as they too can be a source of comfort.

“ Love isn't just a word to use so lightly,
It is a constant light shining brightly.

*Daily caring, sharing, and living.
Constantly helping forever giving.*

*A gentle touch, a wave, a smile,
A gift of gentleness while biding awhile.*

*How could one person affect us so
That are hearts and souls won't let go.*

*A caress, a whisper, a gentle kiss
All of these we forever miss.*

*A love of life is a joyous thing
Forever making our hearts sing.*

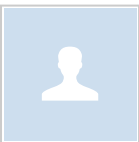

*Hearts singing in joy, in sweet repose
While love twinkles as dew on the rose.*

*My soul is anguished with primordial screams
My life is shattered amidst tattered dreams.*

*I dream of days we spent in bliss,
I long again for one gentle kiss.*

I long again for one gentle kiss.

“ Dear Ken - I am deeply saddened to learn of Carol's passing. Your love for each other was unparalleled and you were truly a match made in heaven. Carol was a beautiful lady filled with style, grace, and kindness. She illuminated any room she entered and had the ability to make everyone feel special and loved. Ken, I know you are devastated. I am thankful to have known Carol and she will be sorely missed. You and your family remain in my thoughts and prayers. Kathleen Healy

“ What a gift God gave to the world when Carol was born, we will be forever grateful
Her family, friends and the community of Dr. Craik will forever ember her love and smile.
A light is gone from our lives, a voice we loved is still.
Be at peace.

“ I will forever cherish the time I had the privilege of having Carol and Ken Hoggard attend my Ballroom dancing class at Lee District Recriational center. Carol was a beautiful dancer and a good sport when occasionally she would help me demonstrate a dance pattern for the class.. I have missed them both but I am greatly sadden to know I have lost my lovely assistant and dancing friend. I offer my deepest sympathy to all of her friends and family. She was pure class with a brilliant smile that felt like a hug. She will be missed. - Bryan Keith Duffy ❤️
