“ Carolyn, the last time I spoke to you on Thursday July 9 th, I whispered to you that I was praying for God's angels to come down and comfort you. You told me you were praying for the same thing. I will always remember and love you for the person you have been. How it is your turn to have your angel wings, and live forever in our Father's house.

“ Mrs. Brown, You were a teacher of mine in elementary school. Through the years we had kept touch through the church where you were friends with my grandmother. My condolences to the family as I know you are going through a ruff time, but she is now in a better place with no more pain. With love and respect.

“ Our valleys may be filled with foes and tears; but we can lift our eyes to the hills to see God and the angels, heaven's spectators, who support us according to God's infinite wisdom as they prepare our welcome home. While we do not place our faith directly in angels, we should place it in the God who rules the angels; then we can have peace. You are our Angel.....we love and miss you.
