

Carolyn Schlossman

March 27, 1917 - December 10, 2016

Carolyn Sondheimer, age 99, died on December 10, 2016 in Falls Church Virginia; daughter of Claire and Gustav Sondheimer, sister of Walter, and mother of Nina Schlossman. She lived most of her life in NY City, where she met her beloved husband of 53 years, Dr. Abraham Schlossman, a prominent NY ophthalmologist, whose career she supported in every way. She loved urban life, the arts, travel, and being with her family. She was an elegant, cultured lady, whose smile touched everyone she met.

Carolyn was born in New Jersey and spent her childhood in Germany, France and Belgium before she moved to NYC. She is survived by her loving daughter, Nina Schlossman and John Keeling (life partner), and Robert Keeling (son). Surviving family members include: Miriam Gerber and Lore Gilbert (cousins) and Ellen Sondheimer Semel (niece), their children (five) and grandchildren (four). She will be remembered fondly as sweet, thoughtful, and gracious; she will be deeply missed by her daughter and all those who knew her. Gravesite service: Sunday, December 18 at 11:30 AM, Beth David Cemetery, 300 Elmont Road, Elmont NY 11003.
