“ I sat at your service and watched your children mourn your loss. They know you're the glue that held them together. May they please keep peace within themselves and remember they now are the family that you and Bob built. The weeks and months ahead of them will be painful, be with them and continue to guide them and help them as a family agree on the final chapter of your life here on earth, and show them you are still in their hearts, and still guiding them through life. This is a prayer I pray for them everyday.

“ I am at peace and happiest right now because I KNOW this was a god fearing woman. She has run her race, received her reward and taken her rightful place on the throne with the angels, Jesus and Our Father. May she forever rest in peace.

“ Mom, My heart has a very large hole because you've left us. You are the best person I've ever known. I know you are in a place with no pain, you have sight and you were welcomed into Heaven with open arms. I know you are at peace, but I'm selfish and I will miss you more than you know. I will honor you and cherish memories forever. Thank you for being my mom. When God made you, he knew what he was doing. I love you Kiss Daddy for me.

“ Grandma, You are the strongest person I've ever known. I can only hope that I have inherited a small piece of your strong will. You have taught me so much over the course of my life, most importantly not to complain and to work through obstacles that come my way. You are forever in my head, and my heart. I will see you again. I love you.
