“ I have known Cathy ever since I can remember. Cathy always had a bright smile on her face and knew how to make me laugh no matter what. She was such an amazing person to know; she will be missed very much. As for Ed, Annalisa, Evan, and the rest of Cathy's family, you will be in my thoughts and prayers. Just remember, Cathy is at home now with our Father; she's in a safe place where she no longer has to be in pain. I am sure she is up there watching over all of us. God bless.
