

Charles H. Crim

July 1, 1930 - September 5, 2010

Crim, Charles H.

On Sunday, September 5, 2010 of Alexandria, VA.

Beloved husband of Mariam Crim; father of R. Kenneth Crim, CAPT. USN (ret.) and his wife, Judy; grandfather of Kathleen and Sean Crim. Relatives and friends may call at Jefferson Funeral Chapel, 5755 Castlewellan Dr.

Alexandria, VA (just south of the intersection of S. Van Dorn and Franconia Rd.) on Thursday, September 16 from 2-4 & 7-9pm, where funeral service will be held on Friday at 10am. Interment Quantico National Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society or Animal Allies, P.O. Box 7040, Fairfax Station, VA 22039.

Tribute Wall

“ Charles H. Crim

October 27, 2022 at 09:45 PM

“ 1 file added to the album Obituary Wall

Jefferson Funeral Chapel - January 28, 2019 at 09:30 AM

“ Rest in Peace, Charlie. You are a good friend. May flights of angels to lead you to our Father's House. -- Bill

October 15, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ My Little Sweetheart I Carry Your Heart I carry your heart with me (I carry it in my heart) I am never without it (anywhere I go you go, my dear; and whatever is done by only me is your doing, my darling) I fear no fate (for you are my life, my sweet) I want no world (for beautiful you are my world, my true) and it's you are whatever a moon has always meant and whatever a sun will always sing is you here is the deepest secret nobody knows (here is the root of the root and the bud of the bud and the sky of the sky of a tree called life; which grows higher than soul can hope or mind can hide) and this is the wonder that's keeping the stars apart I carry your heart (I carry it in my heart) E. E. Cummings Charlie's Little Sweetheart

October 13, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Mariam, Charlie is and always will be missed. I take comfort knowing I have so many great memories with you and Charlie during the Holidays, Vacations and the many special times we all spent together as a family. Norman and I will always remember the cruise the four of us went on. Charlie has always been good to me and you both were always there for me whenever I needed anything. I know his body is at peace now and has been restored by the grace of God. He has gone home and is reunited with those he loved who went ahead of him. I love you Charlie and will see you again. Mariam I want you to know that I am here for you and always will be. I love you, your sister Janet

October 04, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ I am keeping you and your family in my prayers.

September 20, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Mariam, Charlie will truly be missed however, knowing that he is with the Lord is comforting along. He is totally free of all pain and now in his Glorified Body with all the angels of Glory. Praise-the-Lord. You have years of GOOD MEMORIES to cherish for ever. May God keep you always in his care. Robert Crump

September 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Mariam, From our family to yours, please accept our deepest sympathy and our most heartfelt good wishes for healing, blessings, and strength. We are here for you if you need us. God Bless you, Charlie and all your loved ones always.

September 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“Mariam, I never met Charlie, but during our evening chats I got to know a bit about him. What I really learned is what a devoted and loving wife you were to him. And how you were with him all those hours every day when he was in the hospital and how much you prayed that you would do the right thing. Charlie and God love you for that.

September 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“I was blessed to know Charlie, he was a regular customer at Giant and him and Mariam always stopped by the Bakery to ask for extra icing on Charlies blueberry turnovers. Its those little things in life that I enjoy, the simple hello and short chats with a smile every time the two of them came. I know Charlie is in a better place, we will miss him. With all our love to you Mariam, your friends in the Bakery.

September 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“Eternal Father, strong to save, Whose arm hath bound the restless wave, Who bidst the mighty ocean deep, Its own appointed limits keep. Oh hear us when we cry to Thee, For those in peril on the sea! Mariam and Family we know that this was Charlies favorite hymn and we know what his time in service meant to him. He is remembered as a true Patriot, rugged Veteran, and recognized Hero. We are privileged to have been his friends. In this time of sorrow for you, our prayers for strength and courage, like Charlies, go out for all of you. With our deepest regrets, Steve & Rita

September 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“Mariam, God has called Charlie to his eternal peace. I will always have great memories of Charlie; he was a very good friend who I will miss. I know your loss of Charlie is most difficult for you. You are in my thoughts, my heart, in my prayers. God Bless Love You, Judy

September 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“Mariam, Though I did not know Charlie very well, I will always remember that first Easter holiday I was able to spend with your family at your home. The two of you were so welcoming and warm towards my visit that I felt as if I were a part of your family all along. Charlie was nothing short of a gentleman and was in high spirits despite his illness. Though times are tough now, you must remember that your husband is in a better place and will be watching over you day by day as your angel. With much love and support, I will keep you in my prayers.

September 14, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“Aunt Mariam -- As you go through this hard time, please remember I am always here for you not only as your nephew, but as your friend. I always looked at Charlie as a positive and influential role model in my life and he will truly be missed. Uncle Charlie will always be in our hearts and his spirit will be lived through us in the most wonderful ways. Love and miss you.

September 14, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“Mariam, We continuously send your our love and prayers during this difficult time. Charlie was a key building block to the foundation of our family. He will be missed more than words can express. But, like you said, he is with the angels now. He is watching over us, waiting for the time each of us can join him in eternal paradise. Let us be your rocks now that Charlie has risen to new heights with our lord, Jesus Christ. It will be difficult to think of you and Shane and not remember all the holidays and weekends we have all spent together. The conversations around the table after family meals are priceless memories. Each time we think of you, we will remember Charlie. Please know he will never be forgotten. With Love Ralph, Christa, and Logan

September 14, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“Mariam, Please accept my warmest condolences for your loss. Charlie was a great man who lived a great life. Whenever I had the priviledge of hearing his tales of everyday life, I made sure to listen closely. I always knew that the ending would leave you in laughter. His wit,generosity, and charm will leave a lasting impression on my life. God Bless.

September 13, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“Dear Mariam and Family -- I am so sorry for your loss. Charlie (one my past USPS managers, and no question, the funniest) touched so many people during his life, and will be missed by all. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this most difficult time.

September 13, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Ken: Lisa and I send our condolences to you and your family! Its apparent your Dad had a full life, living 80 years and giving you many good memories of your times together. Its tough to see any good things at times like this and no one is ever prepared to part with a dad, especially one as awesome as yours. I am sure he was very proud of you and all your have accomplished; and I bet he was particularly proud of your service in the military. He had many good reasons to support that opinion. I know these next few days and weeks will be difficult to endure, and long after then you will often wish he was still with you and your family. I know even now I wish for that even though my father passed away in 1992. So Lisa and I will keep you and your family in our prayers, hoping that you all find the consolation you need and that you will always remember the good times you enjoyed with him. Take care, my friend, Marty

September 13, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Ken, Deborah and I send you our deepest condolences and sympathies on the passing of your Dad. I can still picture him. He was a great guy. We're sorry for your loss. Sincerely, Deborah and Sean Hallahan

September 12, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Aunt Mariam, You and Uncle Charlie have been a wonderful and positive presence in my life, always looking out for what is best for me. Charlie has always been someone i looked up to and have welcomed and respected his advice. I have always appreciated the many things he did for me. I have been blessed to have Charlie as my Uncle and to share our birth dates together. God bless you Charlie and i miss you so. I love you Aunt Mariam. Love Scott

September 12, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“Mariam, Words can not express how sad we are, you and Charlie have always been there for us. The kindness, help and support you both have always given can never be repaid. We truly will miss hearing Charlie telling us one of his many stories about his life's experiences it gave us a change to get to know him more and learn of the many things that made up his personally. Our lives have been blessed by having Charlie as a member of our family. Knowing he is now with God who has made him whole again, no more suffering or discomfort and is now at peace will help ease the pain and sadness that we feel from his passing into heaven. A loss that cannot be filled. Charlie you will always be in our hearts and i know we will see you again. We love you Mariam and will always be here for you. Love your sister Esther and Mom

September 12, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“Mariam, Even though i have only been a part of this family for a short time you and Charlie have always shown me kindness and have welcomed me into your lives. It has been a wonderful gift knowing Charlie and am sadden that i only knew him for such a short time. I love you both. Katelyn

September 12, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“Mariam ... I am so sorry for the loss of Charlie who had such a special place in his heart for you. As you know, he was my co-worker, whose demeanor was so dependable, pleasant, accurate, efficient, and a super sense of humor who fully loved life. Those attributes also made him my dear friend for many years. He will always remain in the memories of his family and friends as a wonderful person. Love, Lona

September 11, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Mariam, In your time of sorrow, please know "I constantly pray for you that our God may count you worthy of His calling and fulfill all the good pleasures of His Goodness and the work of faith" (2 Thessalonians 1:11). Charlie is a good man, he is now with his Creator in a place where there is no pain and his body healthy.
Love, Gail

September 10, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Mariam, I am so sorry for your loss. Charlie was a wonderful man. He is missed. Today your heart is heavy with sorrow and grief, But as days turn to months may you find sweet relief in knowing your loved one is not far away, But is with you in spirit every hour of the day. Helen Steiner Rice Genise

September 09, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Mariam, May God's love and peace be with you. Charles is with the Lord and we all have the eternal hope. In Christ love,
Maureen

September 09, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ There is a poem called "I'm free" by an unknown author that reads in part: Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took his hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all. Charlie has left us but has reached his God and Savior. Well done for one who has fought the good fight. May God's grace, love, warmth and compassion be with all the family as you go through this troubling time together. God Bless.

September 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ 1 Thessalonians 4:13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. We can be excited and have great hope because Charlie's just "sleeping". We have a hope beyond the grave where we will see him again laughing and telling Jesus jokes. God bless you Charlie and be in "good cheer" Mariam for you will see your loved one again in Glory where we can all laugh and celebrate with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Love Always

September 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Mariam, You have my sincere condolences. May the knowledge that Charlie is with the Lord comfort you and our family.

September 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ In his early manhood, this sailor stood the watch. While some of us were in our bunks at night, this sailor stood the watch. While some of us were in school learning our trade, this sailor stood the watch. Yes, even before some of us were born into this world, this sailor stood the watch. In those years when the storm clouds of war were seen in Korea, this sailor stood the watch. He stood the watch for many years; he stood the watch so that we, our families and our fellow countrymen could sleep soundly in safety at night, knowing that a sailor stood the watch. He passed along that love of country, that devotion to his son, to carry on the core values of honor, courage and commitment until his day is done. Today we are here to say: 'Shipmate... the watch stands relieved. Relieved by those you have trained, guided, and lead. Shipmate you stand relieved, we have the watch.' Fair winds and following seas. I love you Dad. Your son, Captain Ken Crim, US Navy

September 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Miriam, Our prayers go out to you in time of your loss. Charlie was a very nice man. We could see how happy the two of you were together. Charlie is now free of suffering. God bless you, Major & Loretta

September 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM