“ Over the seven years I've known Charlie, I've grown to love him. He was quick-witted with a great sense of humor whose whole face lit up when he smiled. He could talk about anything at anytime and he had a wonderful way of letting you know you mattered. He was laid back and never hurried. He was a true gentleman in every sense of the word. I will miss our talks, his stories, his welcoming smile and open heart, his hugs and his most generous gift of himself and his time.

“ Charlie was always so strong yet so gentle. He was always willing to hear my problems and offer solutions without being judgemental. I was blessed to have him for my brother. I know I will see him again when he insists on being my big brother in heaven. His loving sister, Wilma
