“ Cousin Charlie and his family lived next to our place in farm country when we were kids. We would meet "under the tree" - a hoss apple tree that grew on the border between our properties. We were always climbing that tree (and sometimes would get stuck between branches!). Great memories. My heart goes out to his family. He was quite a guy.

“ Cousin Charlie lived next door to our family and was a large part of my childhood. I loved having Uncle Frank, Aunt Julie, Charlie, Marie, and JoAnn living so close. Every evening after supper, Charlie was part of the cousins group that gathered in the backyard under the tree for the usual clowning around and tree climbing. It wasn't the same when he and his family moved to Virginia. My deepest sympathy to Paul, Andrew, Marie, and the rest of Charlie's family and friends.

“ I will always remember Charlie as being a very nice guy. Lots of memories, including Charlie and I changing some 12,000 street lights in Plymouth County Massachusetts a few decades ago 😊
