“ It is really shocked to say that the cruel hands of death has snatched 'Mike Lynch's beloved Dad "Charles Willard Lynch" from all of us on Jan19, 2011 and I express my sincere heartfelt condolences on his untimely death and pray God to give enough strength to all the members of the bereaved family to bear this repairable loss. Though I didn't have any chance to see him in life yet I can imagine and say with great pride the way he shaped up his Son 'Mike Lynch'packed with such excellent human qualities which I think he would have possessed more than that as a human being in his life. Finally, I again pray for his noble soul to rest in peace

“ Dear Mike & Charlotte, my deepest condolences to you for the loss of your father Bill. I lost my father, Lloyd, in May, 2009, to a stroke. He was also 88. He was a rock & strength for me as I'm sure Bill was for you, Mike. I'm glad that you were blessed to have him with you for all those years. My prayers are with you both. Sincerely, Ron Smith

“ Brother Bill was a great brother-in-law, a very serious minded person. what I remember most of Bill was the way in which he reared his children, he had Michael learning repairing automobiles at a very young age, his patiences while teaching Michael was wonderful. his love of his wife and children really made me understand what a great gut he really was. We rtuly loved him. P.S. Bill was listed by me when I wrote of Frank Clymer Rowe Sr.his three sons Bacel, Frank & Noah as well as his thee Son- In Laws, Marvin Andrew Ford, Frank Convertine & C.W. Lynch all Veterans Of World War 1, World War 11 & the Korean War. I will eventually send a copy to anyone who would like it. Uncle Noah & Aunt Gerda May Our Lord Receive Bill In HIs Loving Arms and save a place for all of us.

“ Some of my fondest childhood memories are those shared with Uncle Bill and Aunt Nell. One in particular: I was about 8, my sister 10. While they visited with my Mom, my sister, Diana, and I set up a lemonade stand outside. Uncle Bill came out to inspect. Like those animated super heroes who grab some old cans and crazy glue and build an intergalactic missile in a few milliseconds, Uncle Bill looked at our pathetic little stand devoid of customers and instantly whipped up a marketing plan. Uncle Bill just happened to have a bow and arrow in his car. He made us a colorful bold sign and shot an arrow through it to mount it to a piece of wood. We placed our picnic quilt with dolls behind the lemonade stand and lowered our prices. It was Norman Rockwell meets Eloise. Who could resist. The scene is memorialized in our family album and it evokes the spirit of Uncle Bill: can do, a sharp mind with limitless imagination.

“ Charlotte, Mike and All of the Kids “ Our condolences, thoughts and prayers are with you. When we think of Uncle Willard, it makes us smile. We enjoyed his wit and sense of humor. I am sure Willard is up in heaven with my mom and Granddad Lynch telling stories and laughing with Nell by his side. Uncle Willard will be missed. Our love to all of you. Beth & Jerry Forton

““Uncle Bill” I’ve never known a man With such intelligence and wit. For those of us who loved him, We most admired his grit. I will miss our spirited discussions On topics like politics; His brilliant views and solutions, Could have provided a government fix. The love of his life was Nell and Mike and Charlotte too; He treasured all his grandchildren It made for a very loving crew. Although we will miss his feisty spirit, Our loss is Aunt Nell’s gain. What provides us with some consolation, Uncle Bill will have no more pain. So for now it’s not good bye but so long, Until we meet our loved one again; It will be a grand time there in Heaven, A Place of Joy, Love and no more Sin. “Uncle Bill we all love you and we miss you already.” Your loving niece, Diana Watson

“I knew Mr. Lynch and his wonderful family since I was a young boy growing up in Springfield. Mr. Lynch was kind, thoughtful, hardworking and most importantly, a great husband and father. I know that all his positive traits were passed along to his children and grand-children. Even though he is gone from this earth, his memories will live in the hearts of his friends and family forever. Rest in peace Mr. Lynch.
