“ I met my Uncle when I was a young girl. Through the years I learned many things from him, patience and fly fishing at Slate Run, PA. In fact, Dick taught me how to fish using dry flies. Loved fishing with him and Joan. My regret is not being able to stay in touch with him, but he was always in my heart, as I thought of him often. When we reconnected recently, we shared our feelings of our 'father/daughter' kind of relationship, and I am so proud to have known him. I pray that my Uncle Dick, rests in peace with the Lord our God. Will love you always, Kathy.
