“ Joe our thoughts and prayers go out to you on the passing of Charlotte. Every homeowner in Carriage Park both past and present owes Charlotte a debt of gratitude for her tireless fight to make that the community the best it could be. I know you will miss her more than anyone can imagine both of you were a model couple. I will never forget Charlotte she was so generous. I am glad you both got to enjoy the boat even though not as long as you would have liked. May God bless both of you until we all meet again. Bob, Tania and Grant

“ Joe, please accept my sincere condolences as you grieve the loss of your life partner and best friend, Charlotte. Although I never got the chance to get to know the two of you as well as I'd have liked to, it was always so obvious how very much in love that you still were. I admired your love for each other very much. I always marveled at the devotion Charlotte had to you. While many a recently retired spouse may have chosen to sleep in every day, nearly every single morning I saw Charlotte waiting for you to come out of HP West so that she could drop you at the VRE station. It was clear that she wanted to be with you as much as she could. You were inseparable. I know that you both have great faith and that you know that you will be together again in heaven someday. In the meantime, I hope you are comforted in knowing that Charlotte is no longer suffering and that she will be with you in spirit for the rest of your days. One somewhat selfish and practical thought of a small piece of Charlotte's legacy... I was wow'ed by Charlotte's organizational skills and I know that she had lists of every handyman, painter, carpet cleaner, etc... All of your Belmont Bay neighbors would be eternally grateful to Charlotte if someday you'd share her list of contacts with us. And, if we some of us utilize the services of folks who Charlotte regarded highly, her influence will live on for years to come. Peace be with you, Janet H.
