“ I have so many wonderful memories of Granddaddy. I am so thankful to have grown up next door to him. It was a blessing to see him and nanny everyday. One thing I can honestly say, he has been a faithful Christian through the years and an example for all of us to follow. He will be greatly missed! I can remember as a child, him praying to God to let him live to be 100. God answered his prayer. We have been so blessed to be able to call him Granddaddy.

“ I only met Granddaddy once a few years ago. I was so impressed with him. He seemed to be in such good health and he showed none of the normal signs of aging. He was a spry man who I understand enjoyed dancing and seemed to retain all of his mental faculties. I have been told that he attributed his long life to continuing to read the Bible every day. Furthermore, I understand that he liked to take a walk everyday. Sounds to me like he had a formula that worked very well. I have been told that his health started to fail shortly before the big 100th birthday party that was planned for him. It was a blessing the he held out for the big celebration and could enjoy it so much. Granddaddy has left behind a wonderful family of whom I am sure he was so proud. No doubt, everyone will remember him for all of their lives. Rest in peace, Granddaddy.

“ Grandad (Pop) was such a wonderful man to all who got the pleasure to meet him! He was faithful to God, family and friends. He knew no stranger and treated everyone as a friend. I loved having him as an example to my children. We will all miss him very much. See you in heaven! Love, Kim
