“ "Chris" was a wonderful spirit. He exuded love with his great big smile and compassion for others. Chris made great efforts to keep a positive attitude and maintain his independence. It was clear that he loved his mother and doted on his son and daughter- they were his heart beats.

Chris loved music especially Godly music. He loved movies and enjoyed participating in my weekly American Sign Language classes. He always kept a protective eye on Mama Gee, one of the oldest residents, a centenarian, at the nursing facility until her passing.

Chris always anticipate long visits with his loving mother, who showered him with gifts and his favorite snacks, while his children lovingly hung all over him. His weekly visits with his long-time pal Rich were always welcomed.

He will be sorely missed- May God continue to bless his family and all of those who loved him well.

Peace & Blessings

“Come they told me.
My finest gift I bring,
To lay before the King,
So to honor Him
When I come.
Shall I play for You?”
Mary nodded.
The ox and lamb kept time.
“I played my drum.”

Chris,
Thank you for being my friend and showing us that a loving heart is our greatest blessing.
Your friend forever,
Rich Sabey

Chris's humor and his loving spirit will be missed. He loved his mom and children dearly. When in high school he played in the band. He always liked music, movies, and very involved in church all of his life .
