“ Dear Jeff...I will always remember your kind smile, and you were always respectful towards me. You knew your way around my kitchen as well as I did, and even pointed my sister to the kitchen cabinet where the foil was kept... You have left us way too soon! Rest in peace.

“ Hi old friend, it's been years and I hate that we have to connect again under these circumstances. I think anyone would agree that your name is synonymous with "true friend." Your heart was as big as they come and you cared truly and deeply for the people in your life. You will be missed but never forgotten. Love you.

“ One of my earliest and only memories of Chuong was having dinner at his home when he was 6 years old and listening to him call his friends from school on the phone. I thought to myself what a precocious little boy he was! My heart is heavy for your parents and friends and the deep loss that they feel, but I pray that you are in an amazingly joyful place where God is giving you all His rest and peace as He holds you in His arms for an eternity, Chuong. Love, Sherri

“ Chuong/Jeff, So many years have passed since you graced our home for Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners. We lost touch and I am sorry for that. We still have pictures of your early years. We spoke to your brokenhearted father today. Words failed us, so we shared our tears. We pray for strength for your mother, father and friends. Lowell and Shirley Long
